Committee Dancing Class to Meet at Asher's. First of Saturday Supper Club Series to Be Held at Bellevue-Stratford-Other Things

AND tonight we have the opening Greer, Miss Anna Biehl and Miss Anna Seefried. Club at the Bellevue-Stratford and the first meeting of the Committee Dancing Class for the members of the younger set. The committee class will meet at Asher's, as usual, and the chaperons this year are Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxe. Mrs. Chariton Yarnall, Mrs. Sydney Thayer, Mrs. Edgar T. Scott, Mrs. John White Geary, Mrs. R. H. Bayard Bowie and Mrs. Thomas McKean.

As practically all the out things are off this year, I'm glad to say the younger set is to have a good time. Overmuch sorrow is bad for young things, and plenty of them are thinking gravely these days of what they can do to help the soldiers and the Government. Don't laugh, for every little helps, even if ; ou are only fifteen or sixteen.

Among the girls and boys who subscribe to the Committee Class are Catherine Coxe, Margaretta Dixon, Betsey Davis, Nancy Dunning, Margaret Dailett, Dorothy Ely, Juliana Baker, Mary Franklin Baker, Rhoda Brooke, Gertrude Conaway, Nancy McKean, Polly Griscom, Deborah Logan, Elizabeth Jeans, Mary and Elizabeth Glendinning, Elizabeth Garrison, Billy Wister, Henry Brinton Coxe, Jr., Owen Wister, Jr., Franklin Bache, George Scott, Harry Berwind, Jr., Georga Remington, Peter Borle, Alfred Cleary, Joe Harrison, Jack Ingersoll, Wright Ludington. Henry Thompson. Edward Jefferies and John Wright.

THE Saturday Supper Club will open tonight with a number of parties. Mr. and Mrs. Evans Roberts have been recelving the subscriptions this week, and there has been a most generous response to the idea, for the proceeds of the club are to go to the American soldiers in France, you know. The dances are to be held in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford, and will begin shortly after 10 o'clock and last through the evening, Several persons will go to the theatre first and then supper at the club, dancing between courses, as is usual in these

The managers of the series, which start tonight, are John Groome, Sam Bell, Jr., Ned Browning, Lyman Biddle, Gustave Heckscher John Bell, Sidney Hutchinson and J. R. Evans Roberts, and the women on the committee include Mrs. Ned Atherton, Mrs. Archibald Barklie, Mrs. Ned Crozer, Mrs. Dal Dixon, Mrs. Bob Le Conte, Mrs. Dorr Newton, Mrs. James Reed, Mrs. Sam Reeves and Mrs. Evans Roberts.

HEAR the Christmas stocking committee of young girls connected with St. Francis's Junior id is busy again, and they are to hold their annual exhibition at the Penfield Building on December 12, 13 and 14. You know they make up stockings and add some warm garment for each little boy and girl and then you can go in and buy a stocking.

If you do not know any poor little child to send a stocking to, the committee members can give you a name, and what is more they will have the stocking delivered on Christmas eve to any address of them, for he was not awfully big, like the subs over there on the lines. Up came uncle and stopped and talked a while. "Well, Jimmy," said he, "what does P. E. A. stand for?" "Aw, I don't know. P's for Episcopal and E's for Academy, and I don't know what the A's for," replied the young hopeful, "Hey! there's a good kick." added he.
